Summer Training Programme 2014

National Institute of Animal Biotechnology (NIAB), Hyderabad, invites applications for the NIAB Summer Training Programme (NIAB STP) for M.V.Sc./M.Sc./B.V.Sc./B.Tech. students for 2014.

Eligibility Criteria:

NIAB STP is open to students from all branches of sciences from any Indian university/research institute.

Those students who will complete their 1st year of M.V.Sc./M.Sc. or in their 6th Semester of B.V.Sc./B. Tech. in May/June/July 2014 are eligible to apply.

About NIAB Summer Training Programme:

NIAB STP is aimed at providing hands-on research experience to students with a hope to nurture their interests in pursuing a research career.

NIAB STP is for a minimum period of 60 days without any break in the months of May-July 2014. Each of the selected trainees will be assigned a small project work and will be supervised and mentored by NIAB scientists during their stay.

Towards the end of the training programme, the trainees will have to submit a 'Project Report' and also make an oral presentation of their project work.

Application procedure:

All eligible students are requested to apply online via www.niab.org.in on or before 31-12-2013.

Selection Process:

A committee nominated by the Director, NIAB, selects the trainees. The selection of the trainees is purely on merit and based on (i) his/her academic record (ii) 'Statement of Purpose' and (iii) 'Recommendation/Reference Letter'.

Preference will be given to candidates with rural background and to those coming from institutes with less research infrastructure facilities.

The number of trainees' intake will depend upon the availability of bench space with NIAB scientists.

The decision of NIAB with regards to the selection of candidates shall be final. Canvassing in any form and /or bringing in any influence, political or otherwise, will be treated as a disqualification.

Support /Boarding/Lodging:

There is no FEE for NIAB STP.

NIAB will not provide any financial support for boarding/ lodging. All the selected candidates are required to self-finance their stay.

Selected candidates are expected to have cleared their final exams (1st year in case of M.V.Sc./M.Sc. students, and 6th semester in case of B.V.Sc./B. Tech. students) before joining the programme and thus are required to bring the documentary proof for the same at the time of joining. Those students, whose results may be awaited at that time, will have to provide a certificate from their college/ institute certifying that the student has appeared for the final exams, and that the results are yet to be declared.

All selected trainees are required to submit a certificate from their Head of the Department/ competent authority of their institute/college/university that they would spend a minimum of 60 days without any break at NIAB to meet the STP requirements.
